Purgatory Resort Company Profile

Durango, Colo. (Winter 2025-26) — Celebrating its 60th anniversary in 2025, Purgatory is known as one of Colorado's most family-friendly and best-value ski resorts. Purgatory is tucked away between Durango and Silverton on the San Juan Skyway Scenic and Historic Byway, on the southern edge of the San Juan Mountains. The resort offers 1,635 skiable acres, four terrain parks, 11 lifts, and 107 trails from wide-open cruisers to steep tree skiing.

For the 2025-26 season, Purgatory has expanded snowmaking, extending to the lower sections of Ray's Ridge, Blackburn's Bash, and Legends Bypass, to improve coverage and ensure more reliable access to the backside and Legends Express (Lift 8).

Purgatory is thrilled to continue offering Power Kids, the only season pass in North America to offer unlimited free skiing and snowboarding for all children 12 and younger, with no blackout dates or purchase required. Lift tickets for the 2025-26 season are on sale now, with prices starting at $9 on select dates. With Purgatory's demand-based pricing, lift ticket prices rise with demand. Purgatory's dynamic pricing strategy rewards guests who plan ahead and helps the resort manage the flow of visitors during peak periods, reducing lift lines and enhancing the guest experience.

Signature events and on-mountain activities include New Year's Eve fireworks, live music, pond skating, snowtubing, and the year-round mountain coaster. Visitors can dine at the Village Plaza base area or take in the views at one of Purgatory's mountain lodges. Overnight accommodations range from slopeside studios to luxurious penthouse suites. Purgatory Snowcat Adventures is Colorado's largest guided snowcat operation, with access to over 35,000 acres of expert terrain in the San Juan backcountry, plus snowcat dining excursions and scenic tours for the whole family.

Purgatory Resort's 2025-26 ski season is scheduled to begin on Saturday, November 22, 2025, with exclusive discounts for season passholders and guests. This winter, Purgatory Resort will be open for daily operations through April 5, 2026, and weekend operations will continue as conditions allow. Visit purgatory.ski.

Purgatory Announces 2025-26 Winter Operating Schedule

Durango, Colo. (September 9, 2025) — Purgatory Resort, one of Colorado’s most family-friendly and affordable ski resorts, will kick off its 60th ski season on Saturday, November 22, 2025. Daily operations are scheduled through April 5, 2026, with weekend operations continuing as conditions allow.

Purgatory Resort opened on December 4, 1965, with one double chairlift and a handful of trails. Lift tickets were $4.50 for adults. Sixty years later, the resort features 1,635 acres of skiable terrain with 107 trails, 11 lifts, year-round activities, and signature events.

Lift tickets for the 2025-26 season are on sale now, starting at $9 on select dates. Purgatory’s demand-based pricing rewards guests who plan ahead with the lowest rates, as prices increase with demand. In addition, Purgatory’s Power Kids program will continue to provide unlimited free skiing for all kids 12 and under this season, no purchase required and no blackout dates. Together, these programs underscore the resort’s commitment to making skiing more accessible for families and giving everyone the freedom to enjoy the mountain. Guests can view daily lift ticket rates by visiting the ticket calendar at purgatory.ski/mountain/lift-tickets.

“We are thrilled to invite skiers and snowboarders to celebrate 60 years of Purgatory,” said Dave Rathbun, Purgatory Resort’s general manager. “This achievement is a testament to the support of our community, the dedication of our amazing team, and our loyal guests who make Purgatory part of their winter traditions.”

Winter 2025-26 Capital Improvements

The 2025-26 season brings a series of improvements designed to enhance the guest experience, including the following highlights:

- Expanded snowmaking extending to the lower sections of Ray's Ridge, Blackburn's Bash and Legends Bypass will improve coverage and ensure more reliable access to the backside and Legends Express (Lift 8). This upgrade enhances conditions and helps ensure great coverage on some of Purgatory's most enjoyed terrain.
- Purgatory will install a Campbell Scientific SnowVue system, a snow stake that provides real-time snow depth measurements. The new system will track 24-hour snow totals, storm totals, and cumulative snowfall, giving skiers and riders clear, consistent updates to plan their days on the mountain.
- Guests will also find new HEAD rental equipment, expanded Wi-Fi coverage throughout the resort, new HD streaming cameras for live mountain conditions, an improved Purgatory app, a refresh at Paradise Pizzeria, and ongoing trail work to clear brush and hazard trees.
